

SENATE, No. 2637

[Senate, April 10, 2008 - Substituted by amendment by the Senate (Antonioni) for Senate, No. 2630]

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

IN THE YEAR OF TWO THOUSAND AND SEVEN

AN ACT RELATIVE TO BULLYING

*Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled,
And by the authority of the same, as follows:*

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 71 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 2 section 37N the following section:-
3 Section 37O. (a) As used in this section, the following words shall, unless the context
4 clearly requires otherwise, have the following meanings:-
5 “Bullying”, any unwelcome written or verbal expressions, physical acts or gestures 6 directed at a student or another member of the school community with the intent to intimidate,
7 frighten, ridicule, humiliate, or cause physical or emotional harm to that person. Bullying may 8 include, but shall not be limited to, repeated taunting, threats of harm, verbal or physical 9 intimidation, cyber-bullying, pushing, kicking, hitting, spitting, or taking or damaging another 10 person’s personal property.

11 “Cyber-bullying”, bullying by means including electronic mails, cellular phones, instant 12 messages, text messages or websites.

13 “School grounds”, a parcel of real property on which a school building or facility is 14 situated; a parcel of real property that is owned, leased or used by a school district for any 15 school district-sponsored activities, events, instruction or training; and school buses.

16 (b) Every school district and charter school shall include a bullying prevention and 17 intervention plan that complies with subsection (c) in its district code of conduct as required by 18 section 37H.

19 (c) Each district superintendent and charter school leader shall develop a bullying
20 prevention and intervention plan in consultation with teachers, school staff, professional support
21 personnel, administrators, students and parents, and shall update the plan biennially. Each 22 district superintendent and charter school leader shall also ensure that the plan is posted on its 23 district website. Each district superintendent and charter school leader shall provide the school 24 community, including teachers, staff and students, the opportunity to offer input into the 25 creation of the bullying prevention and intervention plan by administering a public comment
26 period. Each plan shall include the following:

27 (i) a statement prohibiting bullying on school grounds and at any school-sponsored event
28 or activity, whether on or off campus; bullying through the use of the district computer system 29 while on or off campus; bullying through the use of a personal digital device on campus or at 30 any school or non-school-sponsored, off-campus activity in a manner that causes a disruption on 31 school grounds; and retaliation against students or school personnel who report incidents of 32 bullying;

33 (ii) ongoing professional development in social competency programming or similar 34 training for staff and developmentally appropriate classroom instruction for students regarding 35 bullying and cyber-bullying, including the dangers and consequences of engaging in such 36 behavior;

37 (iii) procedures for reporting, investigating and responding promptly to complaints of 38 bullying made by students, staff or parents; and

39 (iv) disciplinary measures that may be imposed on a student who has engaged in 40 bullying or retaliated against someone in the school community who has reported an incident of 41 bullying.

42 (d) Each superintendent, with the approval of the school principal or charter school
43 leader, shall designate and identify by job title a school official at each school in a school 44 district who shall be responsible for programmatic implementation and oversight of the 45 district's or charter school's bullying prevention and intervention plan.

46 (e) Faculty, staff and students shall be trained annually on the district or charter school's 47 bullying prevention and intervention plan, including social competency programming.

48 (f) Nothing in this section shall supersede or replace existing rights and remedies under 49 state or federal law.

50 (g) Nothing in this section shall create a private remedy for enforcement of this section 51 against any public school, school district or the commonwealth.

52 (h) Nothing in this section shall prevent a school district or charter school from 53 remediating any harassment based on a person's membership in a legally protected categories 54 under state or federal law.

55 Section 2. (a) The department, after consultation with the department of public health, 56 the department of mental health and the attorney general, shall publish a model bullying 57 prevention and intervention plan for school districts and charter schools to consider when 58 creating their own plans.

59 (b) The department, after consultation with the department of public health, the 60 department of mental health and the attorney general, shall compile a list of bullying prevention 61 and intervention resources, existing evidence-based prevention programs, best practices and 62 academic-based research that shall be made available for use by school districts. These 63 resources may include, but shall not be limited to, print, audio, video, or digital media;
64 subscription-based online services; and on-site or technology-enabled professional development
65 and training sessions. The department shall biennially update these prevention resources, 66 existing prevention programs, best practices and academic-based research and model plans, 67 policies and frameworks. The department shall ensure that these resources are posted on its 68 website.

69 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect on July 1, 2009
